Washington Rems.

New York, Dec. 4.—The World's Washington special says:
Conservative Senators pronounce the President's message sound to the core. He argues at considerable length in favor, of the policy of reconstruction, and says our relations with England and France were never more satisfactory. Calls special attention to the recommendation of Sec. McCulloch, to convert the 7.30 bonds at any time before their maturity at the Secretary's option into six per cent. bonds, interest payable in gold.

A Herald's Washington special says: Last week two hundred and seventy nye thousand and four hundred dollars of multilated currency were passed into the Treasury, and nine hundred and eighty dollars of certificates of indebtedness were redeemed.

A Tribune's Washington special says:

eighty dollars of certificates of indebteiness were redeemed.

A Tribune's Washington special says:
The Senate will convene to-day at 12 o'clock, and await the organization of the House and adjourn.

A Senatorial caucus will then be held to prepare lists of committees. With what temper the House caucus, raising a joint standing committee upon the admission of Southern members, will be received is not yet entirely settled.
Some Senators approving the spirit and will meet the concurrence of such a degree of enduring justice as will guarantee all necessary safe-guards to the people and afford what our magna charta, the Declaration of Independence, proclaims the chief object of the government is projection to all men in their individual rights. (Applause.) The world should witness in this great work the most inflexible fidelity, the most earnest devotion to the principles of liberty and humanity, the truest patriotism and the wisest statesmanship, Men by the hundreds of thousands have died that the republic might live. The emblems of mourning have darkened the White House and the cabin alike; but the fires of civil war have melted everyfetter in the land and prove the funeral pyre of slavery. New York, Dec. 4.—Advices from Valparaiso, Chili, to November 1st, give a vivid picture of the excitement prevailing in Chili in regard to the Spanish aggressions in declaring the blockade of the six Chilian ports, viz: Valparaiso, Caldero, Coquimbo, Guayacan, Tomo, and Talcalmano. The Chilian Government has ordered all the Spanish residents to Valparaiso, where they can be under the vigilance of the authorities. The transfer of Spanish property and assets is forbidden. The foreigners in Chili are decided in their support of the Government. The diplomatic corps resident in Santiego, have expressed their approval of the protest of Chili to Spain. The Germans in the province of Alaesma have voluntarily renounced all exemption from taxes, to which, as foreigners, they have a right.

New York, Dec. 4.—The latest advices from Honduras by way of San Salvador, report notable political changes. The insurrection in the Department of Olancho has terminated.

The Congress of the Republic of Honduras has decided to abolish the Senate (Chamber. The reason given is that in a country essentially democratic like Honduras, an Upper House or Senate is not deemed necessary. All the members of Congress will henceforth be of equal political rank, and will be simply called Representatives of the Congress of Honduras.

The question of capital punishment is attracting much attention.

Prem Gautamaia.
